(2) Civil Liberty: The liberty which each individual enjoys as a member of the society is called civil liberty. It is equally available to all the individuals. All enjoy equal freedom and rights in society. Civil liberty is not unrestrained liberty. It is enjoyed only under some restrictions (Laws and Rules) imposed by the state and society.

An ostensibly neutral government action could have the effect of devastating civil society—and liberty as a consequence. It's time for courts to scrutinize how the growth of the state—e.g., a sweeping health-care law, massive early-childhood-education programs, major housing projects, occupational licensing—undermines voluntary associations.
