In these times of instantaneous news, information and entertainment, everyone is exposed to messages from the moment they awake until the minute they drift off to sleep. America spends the most money in the world on advertising and other marketing communication. So, it could be said that marketing is America's pastime, as much so as the classics: baseball, hot dogs, and apple pie. Under the theme of "Celebrating America's Pastimes: Baseball, Hot Dogs, Apple Pie and Marketing", this volume discusses all of the good things that marketing can do. Showcasing research from academics, scholars and practitioners from around the world, this volume provides insight and strategies that will help marketers move forward and focus on the positive that marketing can provide to consumers, stakeholders and society.
