Assessment. Evelina D. Galazzi, Head of Research Strategy, Research and Thought Leadership Group, Cambridge Assessment English. When we say that someone ‘ speaks ‘ a language fluently, we usually mean that they have a high level in all four skills – listening, speaking, reading and writing. But, as any teacher knows, learners often have strengths or weaknesses in particular skills, and in some cases can achieve high levels in, for example, reading and writing, while not being able to ...
